GOV. WILLSON NAMES HIS LIST.

Points Out Several Offices That He Considers Useless.

BI-PARTISAN BOARDS.

Thinks Old System of Asylum Management is Better.

Frankfort, Feb. 25.—In a special message to the senate, in reply to a question about useless offices to which he referred in his campaign speeches, Governor Willson says the following could be disposed of:

Members of the board of control of the asylums.
Prison commissioners.
Commissioner of court of appeals.
Stewards of asylums.
Secretary of state fair board.
Secretary of capitol commission.
Twenty-five too many guards in the penitentiaries.
Other officers of minor importance.

He says that there are others which he cannot yet tell, owing to the fact that he has not yet been able to reach them.

The Republican inspector and examiner is at work on the books.

He wants the asylums returned to the old method of management by local boards, but says whether the old or the present method is employed, the boards should be non-partisan or bi-partisan.

He insists that Senator Newman is prohibited by law from holding the office of secretary of the state fair board.

TO LEAVE KENTUCKY.

Farmers Move on Account of Night Riders.

Kuttawa, Ky., Feb. 25.—It is announced that Henry B. Bennett, of Dycusburg, will leave the state as soon as he can wind up the affairs of himself and of W. L. Bennett. Mr. Bennett is the man who was called from his home at Dycusburg and lashed with thorn limbs and his wife treated similarly by night riders some weeks ago.

Mr. Bennett has made the following statement to the public:

"To the farmers in and around Crayne: I will not receive any more tobacco at all in Kentucky or buy more. I expect to go to Arizona or Washington state just as soon as I can wind up my business and that of W. L. Bennett, deceased."

CIRCUIT COURT GRINDING SOME

Several Important Commonwealth Cases Set for This Week.

TWO MURDER CASES.

Petit Jury Empaneled and Grand Jury Down to Work.

Circuit Court is working on the jail and commonwealth cases this week. No important business has yet been disposed of.

Yesterday was taken 'up with the case of the brothers, John, Arley and Bailey Threat, indicted for gambling in August 1906. The defense was that negroes had them indicted through spite.

The shooting case of Will Brent, who shot and wounded another negro at the I. C. depot, is set for today. Also the larceny cases of Ed Ware and other negroes indicted for hog stealing. The case of Jas. I. Dunning, charged with the murder of Alsbrook, near Crofton, last summer, is set for Friday. The case of Geo. B. Powell, indicted for confederating (the night rider case), is also set for tomorrow.

Another case for Friday is the Chappell Hatchet murder trial.

Petit Jury.

Tuesday morning the petit jury was impaneled as follows: Davis Wilkins, Bob Fears, James Haddock, William Cravens, W. H. Gray, R. D. Gray, Willie Smith, George Watts, Green Moore, John D. Smith, Charles Dade, Frank Petty, L. M. Hill, J. B. O'Neal, Lucien Pool, F. A. Boyd, W. H. Sizemore, Lit Hord, Bob Witte, John C. Davis, Clifton Haddock, A. R. Parker, Edgar Miller, Abe Myers.

The grand jury is getting down to work and is laying out enough work to occupy the time for two or three weeks.

"Sprucing Up" Some.

The city court room has been greatly improved by a much needed new coat of paint and other improvements, including papering. The entire building is to be put in good condition; under a recent order of the council.

Back From Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Long and Mr. R. J. Carothers and daughter, Miss Kathleen, who had been doing Florida for a month, returned to the city Tuesday night. They are all well pleased with their trip. Fritz Fallenstein, who was with the party, will not be at home again for a week or ten days.

Bunch of Four.

The Elks Lodge continues to receive new members every week. Tuesday night four candidates were initiated and the attendance was very large. Those who put on the horns were J. B. Mallon, S. Y. Trimble, Lewis Ellis and Lawson Flack. They were good subjects and the exercises were impressive.

Returning to Kentucky.

With all her faults, there is no place like "Old Kentucky." Several Kentuckians who left for the West a year or two ago have returned this year. Four or five families have returned from Texas, which State is said to be almost crushed by the panic of last fall.

Almost Completed.

Mrs. Amelia Lindsay's handsome home on South Main street, which is being built by the Hopkinsville Lumber Co., is now nearing completion and she expects to move into it some time next month. It will be one of the most attractive and up-to-date homes in the city, with all modern improvements.

PORTRAITS OF
KENTUCKY'S GOV-ERNORS FREE, FREE!

Every Governor's Picture
from Isaac Shelby to Augustus E. Willson.

For the first time in the history of the State a complete collection of the portraits of Kentucky's Governors has been secured, and the Louisville Evening Post has made it possible to place them in the hands of every citizen of this grand Old Commonwealth.

The collection was secured after
art galleries and private collections
all over the United States had been drawn upon. A few of them are very rare, and one of the Governors
is the only picture in existence. It was secured at an expense of several hundred dollars.

The portraits of Kentucky Governors are grouped around a new map
of Kentucky which has just been especially engraved at a cost of $3,500,
and is the latest and best map of Kentucky ever printed. It shows
all of the new railroads built in Kentucky in 1907.

In addition to the latest Kentucky
map and portraits of Kentucky's Governors, there are nine other maps of great value, among them a map of the United States, showing
all of the new possessions, including
the Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and a map of Panama showing the canal zone, also a map of the world.

In addition to these maps there are the portraits of all the Presidents of the United States and the Rulers
of all Nations, together with coats of arms and flags. The three last census reports and a complete census
report of all the towns in the State of Kentucky.

Taking this wall chart as a whole
it is one of the latest up-to-date attaches for the home that has been produced up to this time.

It contains six pages 28x36 inches.
This wall chart is given away absolutely free to readers of this paper.
Ask us about it.

Every home in Kentucky should have one of these Governors' Wall Charts, for there has never before been published in any form a complete collection of Kentucky Governors' portraits, and every man, woman
and child in every home of the State should know who all of their Governors have been and when they served.

It has cost the Evening Post several thousand dollars to secure this collection of Kentucky Governors' portraits, and while the chart alone is worth at least $1.50, yet we give it away to old subscribers who renew their subscription or to new subscribers. Everybody should have a daily newspaper this year as well as this country paper. This is Presidential year. Call at our office and see this splendid Kentucky Governors' Wall Chart, or send for circular with full description.

THE BLACK HAND

Is Causing Trouble to Uncle
Sam.

New York, Feb. 24.—In a letter
signed "Black Hand" and addressed to Commander Braunetter, in charge of the United States naval magazine on Iona Island, the threat
has been made that the enormous stores of smokeless powder on the island will be blown up unless the married men discharged from employment on the island Jan. 1, 1908,
be put back to work at once.

Secret service men are working to discover the identity of the writer
of the letter. Printed by hand,
the letter was mailed at the Haverstraw postoffice two weeks ago. It was as follows:

"If the married men that were discharged from Iona Island are not taken back at once all the magazines
on the island will be blown up. The writer does not fear death."

"BLACK HAND."
On January 1 between thirty and forty men, civilians, who had been employed on the island, were discharged owing to delay in forwarding funds from Washington to constitute work.

Among the men discharged, most of whom were laborers, were many Italians and Sicilians.

Every approach to the island is now being guarded day and night by marines, it is said, and the civilians employed are being kept under the strictest surveillance.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Hopkinsville Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.
Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—
that Backache pains come from weak kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Hopkinsville people endorse this:

Miss L. A. Hester, 328 North Main street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says:

"I honestly believe that there is little need of any one suffering the torment of backache when such an effective remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills can be procured at L. A. Johnson's drug store. The prompt and thorough relief which followed their use in my case has given me abiding faith in their merits. In the summer of 1903, I was suffering greatly from soreness and lameness across
the small of my back and other difficulties arising from a weakness of the kidneys. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills was all I required to free me from the distressing pain in my back and restore my kidneys to a good healthy condition. I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and during the four years
which have elapsed, I still hold the same good opinion of the remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c.
Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—
and take no other.

Rings Strangely Restored.

Miss Annie Paris, of Manchester,
N. H., recently reported the loss of two rings to the police. Two days after she found both rings done up in a wad of paper and lying on the floor of the woodshed at her home.
How they came there is a mystery
which she says she shall not attempt to solve.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's Regulators. They operate easily, tone
the stomach, cure constipation.

NIGHT RIDERS BURN WAGON
AND TOBACCO IN BALLARD COUNTY.

Hold Up Non-Association Farmer Who Was On His Way
to Market With His Crop.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 25.—Armed riders held up a W. W. Merrett, a farmer residing near Lovelaceville, Ballard county, on the road leading to Mayfield, to which place he was going with a load of tobacco, and
burned the wagon and tobacco.
The team was taken out and tied to a tree, while Merrett was held prisoner several feet away until the entire load had been consumed.

The fire attracted several farmers,
who hustled back to their homes
when a volley was fired into the air.
Merrett was released after the job

had been completed and told to go straight home, which he did, the night riders disappearing in the opposite direction. He is a non-association farmer. The wagon contained 1,200 pounds of tobacco and the loss is a heavy blow, as he is only in ordinary circumstances.

This is the first time the night
riders have appeared in this immediate section, Lovelaceville being close to the McCracken county line. It is believed that they came from that section, although none were recognized and no attempt was made to follow them.

MR. BRYAN'S OPINIONS

The plan of guaranteed bank deposits has probably found favor,
among all classes of people and irrespective of political affiliation, more rapidly than any other public question.

The new state of Oklahoma has already enacted a law taxing state banks, the fund thus accumulated to be used in paying the depositors of a state bank that from any cause
becomes unable to meet its obligations. A special session of the Kansas legislature has been called for the purpose of enacting legislation similar to the Oklahoma plan. The governor of Nebraska is considering the advisability of calling a special session of the legislature on account of the growing belief among the people that protection to bank depositors in the form of state or federal guarantees of their deposits will stop
the hoarding of money, bring into circulation sufficient currency to conduct the business of the country, and prevent a recurrence of such disastrous panics as the one through which we are now passing.

Mr. Bryan has been an advocate of a law guaranteeing deposits in state and national banks since 1893.
Mr. Bryan, in discussing the tariff questions, insists that residents of the United States should be permitted to buy home-made goods at home at

as low a price as the foreigner can buy American-made goods abroad.
He also insists that our government should be by and for the people as a whole, rather than by and for the trusts, and administered in the interest of a few beneficiaries of the trust system. He believes that national legislation for the purpose of better regulation and control of interstate commerce and common carriers should supplement state legislation, and not be a substitute for state legislation.

Mr. Bryan's paper, The Commoner, reflects his opinions each week on questions of public importance, and in its columns may also be found
his magazine articles, public speeches, addresses and lectures, which are referred to in the daily press from day to day.

If you are interested in political questions, if you desire to keep in touch with the progress of the campaign and to read Mr. Bryan's campaign speeches send sixty cents to
The Commoner, and the paper will be sent to you each week until the close of the next presidential campaign.

Postoffice money order, currency
or stamps will be accepted. Only sixty cents. Address The Commoner,

HELLO GIRL

Proved to Be Not a Girl and
Was Fired.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—A dispatch
from St. Louis, Mo., says:

There was consternation among the girls of the Forest Exchange of the Bell Telephone Company yesterday when it became known that
"Helen" Iles, a fellow worker, was a boy in disguise.

The secret was brought to light
when one of the girls complained to the chief of the exchange, Miss Burns, that "Helen" was not what she seemed.

"Helen" applied for the position
five months ago, giving the name of Helen Iles, aged 22, of Chicago. A few weeks ago, a new operator,
whose first name is Margaret, was assigned to the exchange.

"Helen," forgetting his disguise,
told Margaret he was a man and asked her to marry him. Margaret refused and immediately sought
Miss Burns, the result being that
"Helen" was discharged from further service.

Wanted for Trouble to Come.

An aged man in New England says
he waited over 80 years for his automobile. Perhaps the chief reason for his length of days is in the fact, as suggested by this statement, that he has waited for trouble to come to him
instead of going out to hunt or meet
it.—Portland Oregonian.

Mr. Farmer:
Are you satisfied
where you are?
Wouldn't you consider
a change for the better?

There is
wealth and independence
for you along
the Cotton Belt
Route in Arkansas
and Texas—

Why?

Because the soil is rich.
It is not worked out. It can be bought now for
from $5 to $25 an acre—
about one-fourth of its value.

The Climate is mild and healthful.
You can work out of doors
the year around.
There are good schools
and churches.
Live stock has good range
nearly all year.
No costly barns are needed
for winter housing.
There is a long growing season—this means
bigger and more profitable crops.
You can raise and market
some crop nearly every
month in the year.
There are good markets
nearby.
There is an abundant
supply of good water.
The rainfall is plentiful
and evenly distributed.

Think what you're
offered!

Low land values—
Good water—
Two crops a year—
Convenient markets—
Grazing for stock the
year around—

Can you afford to stay
where you are?

Just consider whether it's better

Magazines

A Magazine That Is

Up and Doing.

In its first-of-the-year announcements, Lippincott's Magazine promised some big things for the coming twelvemonth, and no time is being lost in making good these promises. The March number contains an unusually fine novelette called "Lady Thoroughbred, Kentuckian," by Will Livingston Comfort, who seems destined to become one of the few really great latter-day American authors. The story—an unusual one—is replete with action vivid and intense from the start, yet no touch of melodrama is permitted to cheapen it—a fact for which the author is to be congratulated. All the characters are ably drawn—the girl, Lelia; her doctor lover, Taine; her abductor, Terhune Glossop; her father, the old Professor; the Professor's wife, a true type of the Kentucky gentlewoman; and the old mystic, Jared Lensing. The portrayal of the last showed that Mr. Comfort has developed into occult philosophy, and all who are interested in Christian Science, Mental Science, Theosophy, or the New Thought will find herein much to ponder over, much to interest them. A well known literary critic who read this story in manuscript form declared it to be "the best Kentucky romance ever written."

The other fiction in the number is no whit behind the novel in point of excellence.

The March American Boy.

The humor of the picture on the front page of the March American Boy representing the two grinning boys teasing a friendly but very smart looking dog, will appeal to all boys. The contents of this number cannot fail to interest every reader. The fine serials presently running in the magazine are each continued two or more chapters. Among the entertaining short stories are: "On Georges Banks, telling of the dangers attending deep sea fishing. What the Trap Caught, a hunting story and a boy's bravery; The Great Cup, a fine story of basket ball; and Chico, Tito and Pepito, a pet animal story. There are a large number of pleasing and instructive articles.

What's in McClure's?

The March McClure's leads off with an article on Governor Hughes by Burton J. Hendrick. "People know so little about him," has been the universal complaint, and Mr. Hendrick's article is a most timely turning on of the light. Ellen Terry's monthly contribution is a chapter called "Memories of Booth and Sarah Bernhardt," in which many other famous one figure besides the great American actor and the etherical "Miss Sarah." General Pickett's widow, in a charmingly intimate article, "My Soldier," recalls the part played by the gallant Confederate general in the Civil War.

PIONEER CITIZEN CROSSES RIVER

John Montgomery Passed Away at Providence
Tuesday Morning.

HE WAS WELL KNOWN

Made Trip to California in 1849—Useful Life Over—
Burial at Providence.

One of the pioneers of this section was removed Tuesday morning when the death of Mr. John Montgomery occurred at Providence. Mr. Montgomery was one of the best known citizens of this section and was a man of high ideals and strong character. He was beloved by all who knew him and was a kind, courteous gentleman of the old school, which is fast disappearing from the walks of life. During the year 1849 he made a pilgrimage to California at the time gold was first discovered in that state. Thousands traveled to this Western state during this period and many stayed, but he decided to return to Kentucky after a brief stay on the coast.

Mr. Montgomery passed away Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock at the age of 79 years, after a period of ill health of several weeks duration. He gradually grew worse after the fatal illness attacked him and his condition was extremely critical for several days before the end came. His death was due to kidney trouble.

The deceased was twice married and both his wives preceded him to the grave. He is survived by four children, James and Joe Montgomery, Mrs. Morris, of Providence, and Mrs. Napoleon B. Hays, of Frankfort, all of whom were at the bedside when he crossed over the dark river.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock by Rev. T. N. Compton. He had been a member of this faith for years.—Hustler.

PEOPLE WHO REALLY KNOW WHAT PE-RU-NA IS.

MRS.
ALICE J.
BORDNER.

Mrs. Emma F. Mumford, No. Green's Court, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes:
"Four months ago I became chilled through and through by getting my feet wet."
"The next morning I was stiff and sore with a severe cold which had settled all over my body. The blood seemed to rush to my head, causing dizziness and blinding headaches."
"As soon as Peruna was recommended to me I decided to give it a trial and am pleased to say that it cured me after I had used it only two months."
"I think you have a splendid medicine and gladly endorse it."
People preferring solid medicine should call for Peruna tablets. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

MRS.
EMMA F.
MUMFORD

Mr. George W. Amory, 357 West 19th St., New York City, New York, writes:
"Somehow I have always had a prejudice against advertised medicine, but I want to make one de-ided exception in favor of Peruna."
"I caught a cold last winter and it tied in throat and head, developing a most persistent catarrh, which seemed to defy all medicines until I tried Peruna. Before I had used two bottles I considered myself cured."

be so used one trial will be sufficient to diagnose his mind.
Peruna is a great and useful family medicine. It is used in multitudes of homes. It has become a standard remedy for various petty ailments in the home. It is especially useful for climatic diseases. It is an excellent remedy for colds. It is a well-tried remedy for catarrh in all forms.

We have a multitude of testimonials
recommending it for colds, for bronchitis, for various affections of the respiratory and alimentary organs.
This is well known to all who know
Peruna by actual experience.

"Cures All Catarrhal Diseases."
Mr. I. W. Kightlinger, Cambridge, Neb., writes: "I don't have any more trouble in my throat, and have not had a headache for four weeks."
Peruna is the very medicine for catarrh. There is no medicine like it in the United States, for I have tried a good many before using Peruna.
"I will keep it in my home to guard against catarrh, as it cures all catarrhal diseases."

Catarrh of Bronchial Tubes.
Mr. Wickliffe R. Smith, editor of The Potlatch Herald, formerly principal of the schools at Cameron, Idaho, writes:
"For some time I suffered with catarrh of the throat and bronchial tubes."
"I tried many remedies, but could find nothing that would give me relief. Finally I tried Peruna. Three bottles cured me, sound and well. I believe it will do
as much for others as it did for me."

Gained Thirty Pounds.
Mrs. Alice J. Bordner, 1311 Maple Ave., Harrisburg, Pa., writes:
"I have found a cure in Peruna. I cannot recommend Peruna enough, and I also thank you for your kind attention to me. I am as well as could be ever since I began taking Peruna, and will recommend it to others. I only weighed 65 pounds before taking Peruna; now I weigh 125."

Throat and Head.
Mrs. I. D. Hayes, 1987 Druid Hill, Baltimore, Md., writes:
"Peruna is one of the best remedies
for gripe, cold in the head, sore throat,
nervous headaches, and coughs that has ever been discovered. After the use of one bottle in my family I don't feel safe
without Peruna in my house."
In a later letter Mrs. Hayes says: "I am never without a bottle of Peruna in the house. I find it good for most every complaint. I give the children Peruna.
If they have a cold and it always relieves them. I don't think I could find a better remedy to give my children."

It is so easy to criticize things about
which the critic knows nothing.
Take, for instance, Peruna. There are plenty of people who are willing to say Peruna is this and that, who never have tasted Peruna, and have never known anything about its effects upon the human system.
There are people who say, and probably believe, that Peruna is used as a beverage by some people. It would be the easiest thing in the world to show
the falsity of such a belief.
Let any one who reads this go to the drug store and purchase a bottle of Peruna. If, after attempting to use it as a beverage or to take it in doses sufficient to produce anything like intoxication, if after putting it to this test such a person is still of the opinion that Peruna is a disguised alcoholic drink, he will be warranted in making such a statement. Practically, Peruna cannot be so used. Any one who knows anything about Peruna by personal experience knows that Peruna is a medicine.

The very label on the bottle, giving the principal active ingredients, furnishes indisputable proof that Peruna is a medical compound. We will be willing to guarantee that no normal person can or will use Peruna as a beverage. If any one thinks this remedy can

TUBERCULOSIS

Being Held in Lexington, to Close Friday.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 25.—Through the chief executives of Kentucky
cities, a special invitation to visit Lexington is being extended to public spirited citizens throughout the State.

The occasion, as stated by Mayor
John Skain, in his letter of invitation addressed to Mayors of other cities, is the American Tuberculosis Exhibition, which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building in this city,
February 24th to March 6th.

"Our city, continues Mayor Skain,
has made considerable preparation for the exhibit, and we shall be pleased if you will extend an invitation to your citizens to attend. It is purely educational, it is free to the public and will be open day and night."

At the opening of the exhibition
Monday night the chief address will be made by Gov. Augustus E. Willson, whose personal interest in the object is expressed in the following letter of commendation:

"It is a life and death matter to tens of thousands of our people and may be a life and death matter to every other one, and everybody
ought to learn the story and see the danger in order to enlist as soldiers
of the right against consumption."
"You may use this letter if you choose as from one who has suffered great sorrow from this scourge, taking away his own father and brother, and the mother and brother
of his wife."

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.
The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep."—Mrs. Nancy
M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y.

ATTACKS CHARTERS

Validity of Those of Kentucky Roads Questioned.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 26.—The validity of the charters of the Illinois Central and other roads in Kentucky was attacked indirectly in an answer to an intervening petition in the circuit court.

There is a suit pending by which the Commonwealth seeks to seize $300,000 worth of land on the river front, held by the Illinois Central,
and which the Commonwealth claims
is not used for railroad purposes,
and which it claims should escheat
to the State school fund. The suit has been pending a long time. The United States Trust Company, of New York, some time ago filed an intervening petition in which they claim that all of the property of the Illinois Central is theirs, under a $25,000,000 blanket mortgage.

The answer to the intervening petition as filed today states that in 1872 the Central Mississippi and New Orleans, Jackson & Northern
railroads were consolidated into the Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans
railroad later absorbed the Chesapeake & Ohio Southwestern, a line
extending from Louisville to Memphis, which thereby became merged
with the Illinois Central interests.
The petition then sets up that under the various State charters and amendments no railroad in Kentucky has the right to absorb another, and in brief attacks the validity of the mortgage held by the New York Trust Company, thereby seeking to cause the river property to escheat to the State.

in a few well chosen words pronounced them man and wife.

Don't Stop My Paper.

The recent ruling of the postoffice
department has caused the following fine old poem to start on the
rounds again:

Don't stop my paper, printer,
Don't strike my name off yet;
You know the times are stringent
And dollars hard to get;
But tug a little harder,
Is what I mean to do,
And scrape the dimes together,
Enough for me and you.
I can't afford to drop it;
I find it doesn't pay
To do without a paper
However others may;
I hate to ask my neighbors
To give me their's on loan;
They don't just say, but mean it,
"Why don't you have your own?"

You can't tell how we miss it,
If it, by any fate,
Should happen not to reach us.
Or come a little late;
Then all is in a hubbub,
And things go all awry.
And, printer, if you're married,
You know the reason why.

Then take it kindly, printer,
If pay be somewhat slow,
For cash is not so plenty,
And wants not few, you know;
But I must have my paper,
Cost what it may to me;
I'd rather dock my sugar
And do without my tea.
So, printer, don't stop you it,
Unless you want my frown,
For here's your year's subscription,
And credit it right down,
And send the paper promptly
And let it bring us often
Its welcome benison.

CALLOWAY BARN BURNS

Victim of The Night Riders
Tells of The Outrage.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 26.—Brandon
Hurt, the independent tobacco planter of Kirksey, Calloway county,
whose tobacco barn was burned Saturday night, said today that the work was done by forty or fifty masked men who rode from Graves county, and they fired six shots but did not wound anyone. All the independent planters around Kirksey
have received night rider warnings,
and this, Mr. Hurt said, impelled him and others to make haste to sell their tobacco.

Kirksey is about forty miles from Paducah, eight miles of Murray, and fifteen miles of Mayfield. This is the first outbreak in the Purchase.

STRAY WHISKY

Found Its Way to Hopkinsville and Caused More Trouble.

Monday a colored woman named
Annie Jones, swore out a warrant
against a negro named Harrison Gowen on the charge of disorderly conduct. She said Gowen had a lot of whisky in quart bottles in his room. The man was arrested and taken to his room where the officers
found four quart bottles, one empty,
two full and one partly full. Chief Roper says that Gowen had given the negro woman a bottle of the spirits.
The bottles bear the label "Elk Run" distillery No. 988. Fifth Internal Revenue District. How Gowen ever got hold of this brand is a mystery, as no dealer here handles it.
Gowen, it is said, has been working in the freight office of the L. & N.
He is now, in the workhouse working out a fine of ten dollars for disorderly conduct.

EXPRESSES SYMPATHY.

Gen. Nogi Feels Sorry for His Defeated Enemy.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 24.—Gen.
Nogi, commander of the Japanese forces that captured Port Arthur,
expressed his sympathy for his defeated enemy in a brief cablegram received here today. On the receipt of the news that Gen. Stoesel had been convicted by court-martial and sentenced to death for his conduct of the defense of Port Arthur, the Cincinnati Times-Star sent a cablegram to Gen. Nogi, stating the fact,
and asking for a statement of his views. In a reply received here today, the Japanese leader said:
"As a soldier, I deeply sympathize with Gen. Stoesel. I cannot bear to state my views."

Practical Definition.

Jimmy had his weak points, as an example of the result of modern educational methods, but his brain
was of excellent quality.
When the teacher looked at him
and inquired, coldly, "What is a synonym, James?" he was ready
with his answer.
"It's a word that you can use
when you don't know how to spell

Saved From Death by a Dog.

Louisville, Neb., Feb. 24.—Byron McNeally, after being fifty-two hours in an old well, was saved by the persistence of his dog. While hunting rabbits, McNeally dropped
through the brush covering of a disused well, ninety feet deep. The dog's antics finally attracted attention and the animal was followed to the well. A mirror's reflection revealed the huntsman at the bottom.
Barring infection due to the presence of dead rabbits, he will recover.

TWO MINUTE SKETCHES

Hendrick Hudson.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

Set adrift in Hudson bay by mutiny, his fate is still a mystery of the frozen north.

WHEN a year or so ago a steamboat for traffic on the Hudson river was launched with the name Hendrick Hudson, somebody remonstrated, holding that the name of the vessel should be Henry Hudson, because that was Hudson's real name. Nevertheless it seems fitting that the boat be named Hendrick instead of Henry, for it was while in the service of the Dutch East India company that the English navigator discovered the great river which bears his name. Moreover, his own country was so jealous of his prowess as a discoverer for another nation that on his return to the old world Hudson was practically impressed into the British service and was not permitted to enjoy his full reward for the successes achieved by him when he voyaged under the Dutch name of Hendrick.

Hudson perished miserably in the service of British interests. This was when he made his disastrous voyage in search of that long hidden northwest passage which lured so many mariners to defeat or doom and which was finally discovered by Captain Roald Amundsen nearly three centuries after Hudson's death. Hudson sailed into the vast northern bay which, along with the gloriously picturesque river, keeps his name on the map of the world. There was mutiny aboard, and the mariners set the great navigator adrift in a small boat in the icy waters with his son and a few other adherents. The fate of Hudson and his party is still a mystery of the frozen north.

For the people of the United States Hudson's chief achievement was the discovery of the wonderful river at the mouth of which has grown up the second city of the world in population and the first in commercial importance.

Hendrick Hudson sailed northward around Sandy Hook and entered the river in September, 1609, in the Dutch ship Half Moon. The explorer spent a month studying the stream, going up as far as the site of the city of Albany.

Veils Used Over Costumes.

The fashion for veiling is a most pronounced fad.
An exquisite evening coat of dull green satin had a hand-painted border 12 inches deep around the bottom. The whole was completely veiled by an overdrapery of black chiffon set on in full folds, edged down the fronts with a three-inch band of black baby lamb. The sleeves seemed to be a series of loops of green chiffon and the baby lamb, arranged in an admissible manner, but suggesting the acme of artistic taste.

RECIPE FOR OLD AGE

Physician's Health Rules For Living Over a Century.

TOOK CARE OF HIS STOMACH

In This, the Late Dr. W. M. Starr of Washington Declared, Lay Secret of Longevity Which All Might Attain. Never Went Into Water Above His Head.

Dr. William M. Starr, oldest citizen of the District of Columbia, who recently died at Washington from cystitis, lived to be 101 years old and told how he did it.

Dr. Starr had a varied career. He was born on what was afterward the battlefield of Bull Run, in Virginia. He traveled extensively in the west, where he built and sold log cabins. Then he became a miner in California in 1840, a planter in Louisiana, a soldier in the Confederate army and ended his days as a medical botanist in Washington.

Dr. Starr never had the services of a physician until his last illness, when he was attended by Dr. J. H. Waring of Washington.

"Longevity is assured every one if he will treat his stomach decently," said Dr. Starr in explaining his long life. "That is the treatment I have accorded mine since I was fourteen years old. Here are a few of my simple rules, to which I attribute the years that have passed over my head without leaving the marks I see upon many younger men around me:

"I never ate as much as I could eat in my entire life.

"I never drank intoxicants of any kind.

"I have never used tobacco in any form.

"I have never taken more than half a glass of ice water at once.

"I never drank ice water after meals, thus paralyzing the digestive organs.

"I have never gone in water above my head. A man's head has no more business under the water than a fish has out of it.

"I only learned what foods were injurious and those which assisted nature in its work. I always avoided the former.

"I have never remained in a draft when overheated.

"I eat two meals a day—at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m."

A short time before his death Dr. Starr said:

"For more than thirty years I have followed a regular program. I retire early, rise a little before 8 and eat a light breakfast. For the morning meal I generally order two scrambled eggs, broiled and butter, mashed potatoes and stale bread and milk. The menu for the afternoon meal, taken at 4 o'clock, is practically the same, with the addition of a few raw tomatoes, prunes or apple sauce. I eat but two meals a day. I drink no water with my food. Under no circumstances would I take a glass of ice water. Ice water poured into the stomach at meal-time simply stops digestion until the water becomes the temperature of the blood.

"A large part of the human family dig their own graves with their teeth. They eat what they should not, they eat what they should not, and they eat more than they should and then expect some doctor with poisonous medicines to keep them in health. Everything you eat, drink or chew is either a benefit or an injury to you. Remember that. What not to eat is just as important as what to eat.

"Investigation has shown me that if you would live long you must put on the blacklist all pies and pastry, oatmeal, fat meats of every kind, coffee, warm bread and in some respects milk. Too much milk is not good for any one."

Lancets to Treat Snake Bites.

In view of the large number of deaths caused annually in Burma by snake bite it has been decided to distribute as widely as possible through the province the lancets designed by Sir Lauder Brunton for the treatment of snake bite with permanganate of potash, the efficacy of which, if the treatment is at once applied, is now established.

UNDERGROUND WIRES.

Clarksville Wins Suit Against Cumberland Telephone Co.

Clarksville, Tenn., Feb. 26.—In the Chancery Court Judge Stout rendered a decision in the case of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company vs. the City of Clarksville. The case involved the validity of an ordinance of the City of Clarksville requiring wire-using companies to put its wires underground, but the telephone company claimed the ordinance was void because it discriminated in favor of the Clarksville Railway & Light Company in the following clause: "Provided, however, that the provision of this ordinance shall not apply to the wires of the Clarksville Railway & Light Company." The Chancellor said that this provision in the ordinance did invalidate it, but that he could remedy this by eliminating that provision, and with this done the ordinance was held valid and applied to all companies having wires in that territory. The effects of this decision is that both wire-using companies of Clarksville will be compelled to put wires underground in the territory mentioned in the ordinance.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 25.—Twelve hundred pounds of tobacco, his year's crop and his only hope of recouping funds were destroyed by night riders as A. M. Merrett, a non-association farmer, was on his way to Mayfield.

The holdup occurred in Ballard county, near the McCracken county line, and Merrett was tied to a tree until the work of destruction was complete.

The smoke and the flames attracted several growers from the populous districts about, but they were told to go back into their houses and a volley was fired at them.

The twenty riders attacked Merrett near Lovelaceville, which is as close to this city as it is comfortable for them to get.

Local Leaflets.

Mr. McPherson, as we going to have a Spring Music Festival this year?

Saturday will be the last day of February. The day will be one hour and forty-three minutes longer than January first.

Many Hopkinsville people will be glad to learn that a bill has been introduced in the Legislature to abolish the office of revenue agents.

From the frequent rains, it may be safe to say that the month of March will come in like a young duck, "in the swim," you know.

Not much, if any, maple syrup (the real home-made article) has been brought to town, though the month for making is about gone.

The robins and blue jays have made their appearance. Spring is not far off and the groundhog's six weeks of bad weather will soon be out.

The league base ball players have gone South to practice for the coming season, but it is no sign that Hopkinsville will have base ball this year.

The farmers are buying tobacco canvas and next week the early garner will begin operations. Potatoes, peas and other "garden truck" can be planted, but plant deep.

Fishing poles are ripe. We saw a fellow with a bundle of them Sunday that he had cut while walking along the river. He was looking for "the park"—and he is looking still.

Gov. Willson has expressed his opinion that the old plan of conducting asylums is preferable to having them managed by a board of control, as at present. Men who gave their time for years in the service of the State, without remuneration, were never appreciated as they should have been.

Some people are talking about a ten-weeks' meeting at the Tabernacle, and the opinion has been expressed that if George Stuart could be brought here it would do more to bring about peace than anything else. The ministers ought to think about it.

The prospects are still splendid for the ice man being on top next summer, but let us hope that he will not raise the price. Men who ought to know say that there is money in making ice at 35 cents a hundred pounds.

KILLS PRIEST

During Early Mass Before Large Congregation.

Denver, Feb. 25.—Just after receiving the holy sacrament and kneeling at the altar Guimarro Giuseppe, an anarchist of New York and Chicago, shot and killed Father Leo Heinrichs, priest of St. Elizabeth's church, at early mass today. The priest had just laid the holy wafer on his lips when, with a scream, the assassin spat it out, drew a revolver, cursed the priest and fired through the sacramental robes into the heart of the father. Death was almost instantaneous.

Paris, Feb. 24.—The marriage of Miss Alice New Wetherbee, daughter of Gardner Wetherbee, of New York, to Count Rudolph Festetics von Tolna, took place at noon today in the American church, Rue de Berri. Count Festetics is a Hungarian. The count and countless left Paris by the night train for Marseilles, where they will embark on the Hohenzollern for Cairo. Later they will visit America. They are expected to return to Paris in about three months.

IN THE CONNING TOWER.

Whelan Observed Eye and a Listening Ear Hears Occasionally.

Rumor said some time ago that Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Troendle would leave Hopkinsville at once and locate in Louisville. Their many friends will be glad to learn that they will not leave the city until after April first. Mr. Troendle, it is true, is already engaged in business in the Falls City, but he can not get possession of the residence he has leased until the first of April.

Since Rodman Meacham went to Tennessee he has turned out a full beard. Now that he is home again he has his uncle, Dr. C. H. Tandy, to go to sit for a photograph, so they can "tell which is which." The question with their friends is not whether Dr. Tandy looks as young as Rodman, or whether Rodman looks as old as Dr. Tandy, but there is danger of mistaken identity.

Col. Arthur Henry says that the "Kentuckian is an awful paper." He had to publish a notice for a teacher wanted in school district No. 4. The first day "It began raining applications," he said, "and the telephone was kept hot for a week by people who wanted to take charge of the school." Lesson: If you desire to let the people know what you have to sell, press the button, and the "Kentuckian does the rest."

Everybody knows that Postmaster Breathitt would be pleased to have more convenient and better lighted quarters and he and his corps of assistants are entitled to the best to be had until we get a public building. But when will that be? Major Breathitt would, of course, render every aid in his power if our citizens would go to work with him in getting what we need. Congressman Stanley is under promise to help, too.

We saw Mr. Flack looking for his lost pocket knife Tuesday. It is useless to say he didn't find it. Knives, like umbrellas, are considered common property by most people. Two or three centuries ago, maybe, people generally must have been more honest than today. Makers of knives put a plate on the handle on which the name of the owner was engraved so that if he lost it the finder could know who to return it to. The name plates are still put on the handles, but the name never.

A lot of fellows this is intended for (joke) was saying "The Boy Grocer" about his rosy cheeks. Clark said he had rather have red cheeks than a red nose. Then the red-nosed fellow said that Clark painted his cheeks. Clark denied it and settled the argument by saying that when he and Mat Starling go fishing he catches so many sun-perch that they sun-burn him before he can put them into his fish bucket. Anybody who knows Clark's reputation for veracity when he talks about fishing can rest assured that he does not "paint."

The St. Louis piano fake, who played on the credibility of some of our citizens to the tune of hundreds of dollars and smaller amounts, is still talked about. New victims come to the surface every day and the song they now sing is:

Where is your Wandering Boy today?
How much did he get me for, you say?
He got me for "a ten," he got me for "a bun"
But when he comes back, you can bet there'll be some fun.

Don't expect to hear the above when Hatfield's Minstrel's are at the opera house soon. All rights are reserved for George Smith, who may want to set the lines to the music of—

"Shall old acquaintance be forgot (shoot him on the spot)
And never brought to mind?"
("I'm too hundreded behind.")

There is considerable talk among the farmers about the bad roads. Many of them insist that the road they live on is "the worst in the whole county." Capt. J. W. Riley insists that a place on the road near Newstead is decidedly the worst, and he has a little the advantage of others, as he can prove it by H. D. Wallace. We have not the least doubt that what these gentlemen say is true, but we would not have far to go to find a man who, according to his ideas, would be justifiable in using the double superlative, and could prove that his road is "the worstest worst." But there are better times ahead, and when good weather opens up active operations will begin; some of the contractors have already a good portion of the stone ready for using.

HOTEL LATHAM WILL BE RUN

Manager Thompson Will Retire and Go to Seattle.

CITY'S GREAT NEED.

Prospective Manager Not Yet

Ready to Make Statement.

For several days a rumor has been in circulation that Hotel Latham would be closed next Saturday, the last day of the month, and that Mr. George W. Thompson, the manager, would go West.

The report is partly true. Mr. Thompson will go to Seattle, Washington. Mr. Thompson took charge of the Latham on the 15th of October last. From what we can learn Mr. Thompson's step was experimental. He is a splendid hotel man and during his stay here he has, with the assistance of Mr. Thos. R. Shaw, kept the establishment up to the high standard it has enjoyed for years.

The prospects are that the hotel will not be closed at all. By Saturday we hope to be able, not only to state most positively that the hotel will remain open, but to give the name of the new manager. Should the negotiations now on hand go through, the traveling public can rest assured that Hotel Latham will be in good hands.

Hopkinsville cannot do without the hotel. It is just as essential as our banks—or anything else. We will be taking a long step backward should it be discontinued, and we hope soon to make a positive statement as to its future, and have good reason to believe that the statement will be favorable for a continuance.

NO MORE TOBACCO

Will Be Handled By Dealer at Murray.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 26.—After receiving a threatening note signed "Night Riders," W. L. Whitnell, of Murray, has closed his prying house and will handle no more tobacco this season. The note stated that he would be summarily dealt with if he continued to buy tobacco.

Formerly Mr. Whitnell was organizer of the association in Calloway county. He was also prior for the entire county until this year, when he quit the association on account of the accusations that he was trying to control all of the contracts in that county. He began buying tobacco independently this year, but on receiving the warning he decided it would be best to quit.

Condition of Mr. Givens.

Judge L. C. Flournoy and Mr. B. G. Waller returned Sunday night from Hopkinsville to see Mr. Peter Givens. Mr. Givens recognized both of them and seemed to be in very good spirits. The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Givens will be glad to know that hope of his recovery is still entertained.—Morganfield Post.

Maj. Albrecht Hurt.

Maj. Geo. W. Albrecht, of the K. S. G., has had quite a painful experience with his right hand which was sprained and bruised about two weeks ago, by an accident. While inspecting a building, he slipped and hurt his hand in catching his balance to keep from falling from an elevated platform. The hand became much swollen, and has been under surgical care ever since. It is now, so far recovered that the bandages have been removed. It did not, at any time, interfere with the Major's military duties.
